Tara Connolly

Tara Connolly provides you with a collection of beautiful spring-themed verses to use inside your cards

*Winter leaves our bright blue skies
Spring rain starts to fall
The flowers wake to share their joy
Sending colour to us all
Wishing you a happy Easter*

The birds sing in the trees again, the sun is warm and bright
A breeze chases off the cold, spring fills the world with light
Filled with possibilities of bright and happy times
With colour and with sweetness, as the new sun shines

*Lilies in the valley, snowdrops shy away
Daffodils dance in the breeze, poets see them play
Tulips brighten soft green grass and hyacinths abloom
Filling all the springtime air with nature's sweet perfume
Wishing you a sweet and colourful birthday*

The world is waking up again, ready now for spring
Flowers bloom in sunlight and birds begin to sing
Easter's round the corner with all the joy it brings
Wishing you much happiness in all of life's best things!

A new chapter is just starting and fresh things come your way
Congratulations on your many years, we'll miss you every day
Enjoy the time you've earned, it's time to take a rest,
Happy retirement to you our friend and, as ever, all the best!

*Your birthday falls in spring and what a time to be
The world is full of colour for everyone to see Celebration fills the season and life is full and new Enjoy these birthday greetings filled with love for you*
